Shannon Timmann

Associate

Shannon joined Clare Locke as an associate in 2018. Her practice focuses primarily on business litigation, defamation, and protecting clients from reputational attacks. She has extensive litigation experience, from initial pleadings and discovery to motions practice, trial preparation, and appeal. Prior to joining Clare Locke, she was an associate at a boutique business litigation firm in south Florida, a law clerk for the Fourth District Court of Appeal in Florida, and a criminal appellate attorney. Shannon has assisted and managed litigation and conducted comprehensive research on a variety of matters including contract disputes, civil conspiracy, breaches of fiduciary duties, shareholder disputes, fraud, trusts and estates, construction disputes, employment disputes, and bankruptcy.
